

Petition for Category Course Credit

Student Name: _____ ID #: _____ Date: _____

Institution Attended: _____

Date/Semester of Attendance: _____

Course Number and Title: _____

Students seeking Category course credit via petition need to provide a detailed rationale for the course for which they seek approval. That rationale should explain how the class meets the following criteria and must include specific examples from the reading, discussion, or other aspects of the course which indicate your deepened understanding of either Environmental, Ethnicity, Gender or Global Studies.

INSTRUCTIONS: Write a separate paragraph for each criterion of the mode or category you are petitioning to fulfill. These paragraphs should clearly state how the requirements of the class you took satisfy each criterion. Be specific and provide examples of your work from the class if they would help to illustrate your argument. A syllabus for the course must be submitted with the petition.

Criteria for Environmental Studies

Each approved course meets the following criteria:

1. It must substantially enhance students' understanding of the earth's environment.
2. It must deal substantially with the consequences of human intervention into natural systems.
3. It must lead students to view the relationship among elements of environmental systems from an interdisciplinary perspective.
4. It must focus on the perspectives that environmental studies brings to the discipline.

Criteria for Ethnicity Studies

Each approved course meets the following criteria:

1. It must foster inquiry into the cultural construction of ethnicity.
2. It must focus on the perspectives that ethnicity brings to the discipline.
3. It must place the issues of ethnicity in their historical context. This may include the rediscovery of marginalized texts.
4. It must provide students with the opportunity to examine their own experiences with ethnicity.

Criteria for Gender Studies

Each approved course meets the following criteria:

1. It must foster inquiry into the cultural construction of gender.
2. It must focus on the perspectives that gender brings to the discipline.
3. It must place the issues of gender in their historical context. This may include the rediscovery of marginalized texts.

Criteria for Global Studies

Each approved course meets the following criteria:

1. It must have as an organizing focus topics that are international (focusing on a particular region) or global (focusing on an issue pertaining to multiple regions or countries).
2. It must foster inquiry into the interconnectedness of international issues and students' lives.
3. It should attempt to bring the world into the classroom so that students learn how to function in an international environment and gain a deeper understanding of the world outside the United States.
